

Article 2.

Article 7.

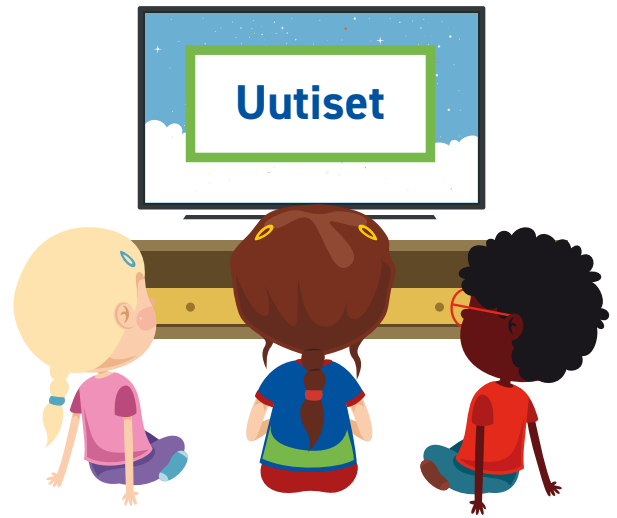

Article 9.

Article 14.

Article 16.

Article 17.

Article 23.

Article 24.

Article 28.

Article 30.

Article 31.

Article 38.

Article 2.

The child must be protected against all forms of discrimination.

Article 7.

The child has the right from birth to have a name and nationality.

Article 9.

If the child is well and safe with his or her parents, the child has the right to live with them.

Article 14.

The child has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion.

Article 16.

No child shall be subjected to interference with his or her privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to unlawful attacks on his or her honour and reputation.

Article 17.

Every child has the right to reliable information from a variety of sources, such as the television, the radio and newspapers.

Article 23.

A disabled child must be able to enjoy a full and decent life.

Article 24.

The child has the right to good health and to the treatment of illness and rehabilitation of health.

Article 28.

Every child has the right to education.

Article 30.

A child from a minority group or of indigenous origin has the right to his or her own language, culture and religion.

Article 31.

The child has the right to rest and leisure, to engage in play and recreational activities, and to participate in arts and cultural life.

Article 38.

The child must not take part in war.

