

EDUFI Fellowship for doctoral students from Ukraine

Funding granted in 2022–2024

39 doctoral researchers, excluding four rejections and two withdrawn applications

Amount of funding granted ~900,000 €

Number of applications received 45

Of those funded 31 are women and 8 are men

Disciplines e.g.:

- linguistics
- physics
- biology
- sociology
- political science
- literary studies

Data from reports (26 pcs)

Achievement of goals set for the scholarship holder's research: 88 % quite well or very well

Relevance of the funding instrument on a scale of 1 to 5

- grant amount 4.1
- duration of the funding period 3.9
- flexibility of the application process 4.8
- establishing or strengthening international cooperation 4.1

During the fellowship, doctoral students:

- were able to reorganise and continue their doctoral studies.
- updated and refined their research plans and methods.
- advanced their doctoral research.
- wrote and published scientific articles.
- completed courses related to their PhD studies.
- attended seminars and scientific conferences.
- networked and created new or deepened existing research collaborations.

9 universities:

- Aalto University
- LUT University
- Tampere University
- University of Eastern Finland
- University of Helsinki
- University of Jyväskylä
- University of Oulu
- University of Turku
- Åbo Akademi University